- Creating communities that last.

TRANSPORTATION

Getting To Baltimore:

- It's easy to get there.
- Baltimore Washington International Airport
- Take the train from the airport. It's cheap and takes you right downtown.

Other options are:

- Car rentals
- Super Shuttle
- Taxi
- Uber

Downtown:

- The City has a bus service in the downtown.
- Most things are walkable. There is a paved trail around the perimeter of the harbor.
- Driving in the City is difficult and overnight parking is very expensive.

Great Venues

SATURDAY EVENING

Maryland Science Center

Located on the Inner Harbor.
Three levels of exhibits.
Great Views of the Harbor.

TUESDAY EVENING

B & O Railroad Museum

Largest collection of 19th century locomotives in the U.S.

LOTS TO DO

Dining:

There are enough restaurants to eat out every night of the week and still visit them all.

Neighborhoods:

Baltimore is a city of distinct neighborhoods that represent culture and diversity. We went to the Italian neighborhood.

Historic:

There are many historical landmarks and historical events that occurred in Baltimore.

Short Drives:

Close Proximity to many landmarks, cities and national monuments.
